

Hobstar Preview: November, 2013

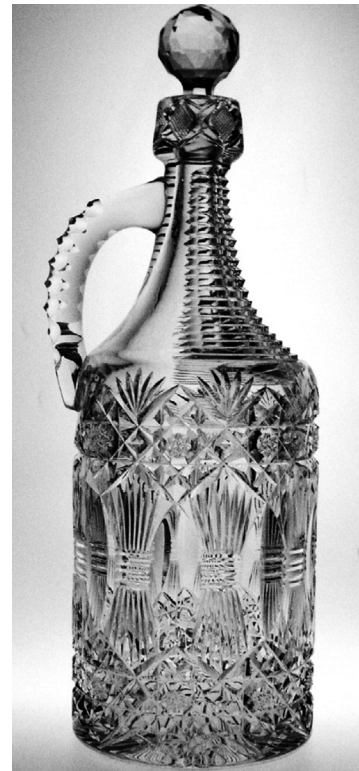

Four colored-cut-to-clear wines from the West Coast Fun & Learning Weekend, as described by Carrol Lyle.

Phenomenal punch bowl with 8 matching cups. 14 1/4" diameter and 13" tall. Just in time for the holidays, some of almost three dozen pieces pictured and described for sale in a 3-page hobstar.com advertisement.

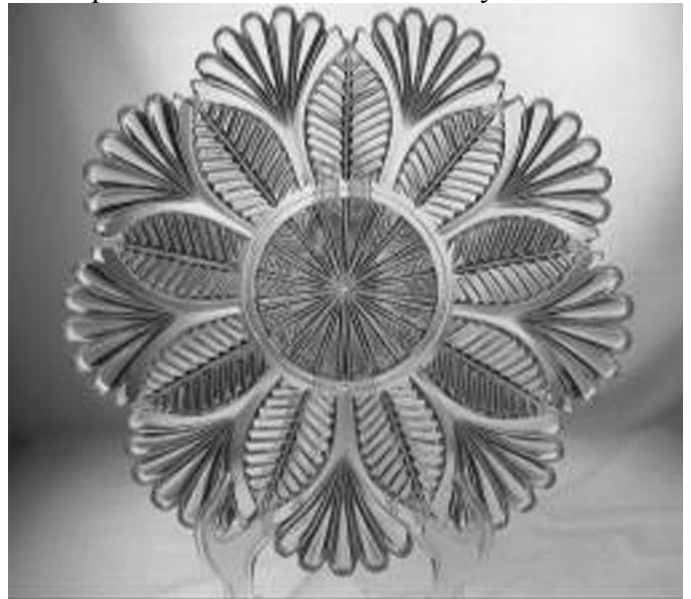

Just Published: two new books of immediate interest to those seeking to advance their knowledge regarding American Brilliant Era cut glass:

Essays and Insights into Becoming More Knowledgeable About American Brilliant Cut Glass and A New Discussion of Figured Blanks and Other Developments of the American Brilliant Era 1876-1920, were advertised by author LindaJo Hare.

The Oct., 2013 Pattern Quiz answer is Hoare's "Cut 1112" pattern. This piece appears in the ACGA teal cover Hoare Catalog reprint on page 68, which indicates that the demijohn was blank 8658 and came in 2 Qt., 4 Qt., and 8 Qt. sizes. The pictured one is the intermediate 2 Qt. size. From the cut glass decanters collection of John Dresely.

Fern pattern bowl offered for sale by Hobstar.com.
