

The Hobstar Preview: November 2014

November Cover Photo
Regal Pattern
By Sterling Cut Glass Co.

The Pattern Quiz answer for Oct. 2014 could be found in a United Cut Glass Advertisement from 1910, reprinted in LABAC Cut Glass Advertisements, Book Four. More pictures are in The Hobstar and so is the pattern name!

Pattern Quiz Picture
October 2014

"Feathered Vesica Patterns Part II" explores the various patterns/motifs used inside the feathered vesicas. Eleven different patterns are discussed. What a great way to learn to tell different patterns with the same major motif such as a feathered vesica.

"Online Cut Glass Information" explains how to use the catalog information on the ACGA website for pattern identification and research. The 1884 New England Glass Company and the 1903 Clark Cut Glass catalogs are described in more detail with pictures of shapes not seen very often, like the New England cut sugar and creamer below.

Learn how "A Little Luck Can Be Brilliant" in an article by member Mark Davis as he describes two eBay finds.

2015 ACGA Convention coverage is now on the ACGA website. Oil and Glass, ACGA's 37th Annual Convention will be held July 15-18, 2015 in Tulsa, OK. Learn about it in The Hobstar and explore all there will be to do at the convention and in Tulsa at our website!

Ad for the new book The Chain of Evidence Continues highlights this new 550+ page book. Pre-publication price closes in December.

Join the ACGA to receive monthly issues of The Hobstar. Members also have worldwide access to the wealth of cut glass knowledge in our online archives of The Hobstar, which present every issue published since 1978.