

Hobstar Preview: September 2015

8" dish cut and signed by Libbey in their Sonora pattern.

“Brunk Auction Results” by Fred Coveler reports that the Dorflinger Marlboro green cut to clear globe cologne sold 7/18/15 for $3,676.

In “Skinner Auction Results” Fred Coveler reports that in Boston on 7/18/16 a pedestal Meriden Alhambra pitcher (pictured) sold for $11,070. A Florence flashed star pedestal coffee pot (also pictured) brought $5,483.

A full page fifteen photo advertisement announces that the next Woody Cut Glass Auction will be 9/12/15 in St. Charles, MO. Glass from five collections will be sold without reserve.

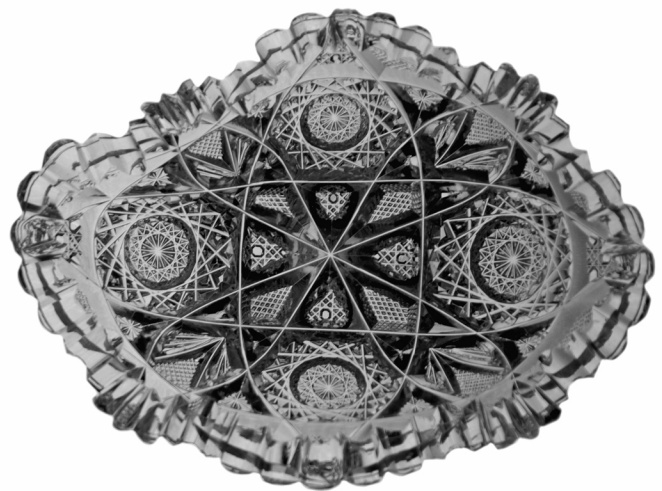

“Enhancing the Sparkle: New Assistants to Focus on American Brilliant Cut Glass Collection Thanks to Luce Grant” by Kim Thompson. Documentation supporting the 1565 piece collection of American brilliant cut and engraved glass at the Corning Museum of Glass will receive a major update, including both photography and information development. Two new staff assistants will work for an entire year on this important project

The Pattern Quiz for June was correctly identified by only one respondent, Elizabeth Jane Barber. This piece is from a family of Hoare designs that share astral of star-shaped outline which is embellished by starring some or all of the points. Patterns in this group include No. 1564, No. 284, No. 998, Bolo and Iola.

Pattern Quiz dish cut in the Bolo pattern by Hoare.

Affordable 5 1/8" long odd-shaped dish nicely cut in the Egginton Roman pattern, one of hundreds of designs identified in the Bundle Y catalogs.

Want to see all sixteen pages of this issue? Join the ACGA to receive monthly issues of The Hobstar. Members have instant worldwide online access to the wealth of cut glass knowledge in our archives of The Hobstar, including every issue published since 1978.